USEFUL INFORMATION

Info about country

From year to year, Mauritius successfully remains a quite expensive luxury but highly popular resort.

Mauritius has finest white sand beaches, number of original villages with friendly local villagers, and amazing underwater world that attracts divers from over the world.

Honeymooners choose Mauritius as a honeymoon destination and couples who celebrate their wedding anniversary like to spend their special day here.

Luxe-voyage Ltd provide each family with a personal English speaking guide who will answer client's questions by phone or in case of need, an English representative of our company will meet clients at the hotel.

Mauritius differs from other islands; besides of water sports programs you will get a chance to experience island sightseeing and an opportunity to visit national parks, museums, mosques, and Hindu temples...

Mauritius is not only the island of sun, sea and beach, it is a real kingdom of virgin nature which you can research and experience.

Mascarene Islands are a group of volcanic islands and consists of the islands of Réunion, Mauritius, and Rodrigues.

The main sources of Mauritius income are sugar cane production, textile industry and tourism.

Tourism development is under a strict control of local authorities that by all means try to avoid disaster examples of other countries that were fully absorbed by development of their industry. Thanks to such politics Mauritius got reputation of «exclusive direction» beyond of mass tourism routes.

Currency

Local currency is the Mauritian rupee (USD 1 = Rs 40 // EUR 1 = Rs 50).

Master Card, Visa and American Express are accepted everywhere by banks, hotels, restaurants and major shops excepting small villages.

Banks open from 09.00 to 15.00 from Monday to Friday, on Sundays and public holidays are closed. Also one can find banks in the airport at international arrivals & departures. We highly recommend changing money in the airport there are many currency exchange points where you can get better currency than at the hotels.

Shopping:

Most shops open from 9.30 to 19.30 from Monday to Saturday

Some of them open until 1 pm on Sundays and holidays.

Wide choice of products in most Duty Free shops and modern shopping centers.

Clothes

It is better to wear cotton clothes and comfortable footwear like sandals and something for head like panamas or hat. We recommend using special sun protection cream and taking sunglasses. If you are going to visit some religious or holy places please take something to cover your shoulders and knees.

As for mobile communication, please ask your mobile operator to give you all detailed information!

EXCURSIONS

Helicopter Sightseeing of the island, Catamaran Cruises along eastern, northern or western coast, south tour, safari, submarine, excursion «Discover Mauritius», visiting Port Louis and Pamplemousses Botanical Garden, big game fishing in Mauritius, Zip Line, Horse Riding, Quads and many other...
